

I have had XM Radio for a year and a half and love it. I love the variety it provides and the up to date traffic and weather. As a Chicago resident, I am much happier having the choice of instant information rather than information every 8 minutes that I have to wait for. I pay for this service and am stunned by the movement to take this choice away.